BETTING ON THEIR GUESSES.

Harrison's Cabinet Makers Have Confidence in Their Opinions.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 6.—No more is known about General Harrison's intentions than two months ago, but many of the Indianapolis politicians who believed until recently that Mr. Blaine would not be the Secretary of State of the new Administration have in some way found reasons for changing their opinions, and the Maine statesman within the last few days has been placed at the head of the Cabinet states of those who are recognized as good guessers. Why they have changed their minds the speculative gentlemen do not undertake to tell, doubtless for the reason that they can't. They get their impression from little things that are interpreted as significant. One of them who was asked to-day why he was so confident that Mr. Blaine would be the Premier of the Administration replied: "Because there are so many of the leading and influential men in the party who believe that he ought to be."

How general this impression has become is indicated by a remark that Col. W. R. Holloway made to Gen. Harrison a day or two ago.

WILLING TO BET ON IT.

"The boys down town are getting along so well with the construction of your Cabinet that they are betting on five of the men they expect you to select."

"So?" inquired the President-elect; "who are the five men?"

"Blaine, Platt, Wanamaker, Clark and Estee."

General Harrison talks more with his eyes than with his tongue nowadays, and those who know him well understand from the expression of his countenance when he is pleased or displeased. The smile with which he quickly looked from the floor to Col. Holloway when the names were repeated left the impression that he thought it was pretty good guessing, but he said nothing.

"And they have so much faith in the guess," added Holloway, "that they will bet on it with anybody except you."

Col. Holloway is one of the Indianapolis Republicans who is confident that Mr. Blaine will be at the head of the Cabinet.

"I am sure of it," he said, during a conversation this evening.

"Why?"

"It is the desire of such a large proportion of the members of the party. Every prominent man who has called upon Gen. Harrison—with the possible exception of Mr. Quay—has expressed himself favorable to Mr. Blaine, and his friends throughout the country are strongly urging that he should be placed at the head of the Cabinet. I am sure that he will be the Secretary of State."

MR. PLATT REGARDED A CERTAINTY.

It is also regarded as certain that Mr. Platt will be one of the members of the Cabinet. With the exception of Mr. Blaine he has stronger influence back of him than any of the other men who have been proposed for a portfolio, and the information comes from a trustworthy source that Gen. Harrison, while not disposed to commit himself at this time, has given more encouragement to the friends of Mr. Platt than to any of the prominent men who have visited him for the purpose of talking about the Cabinet, and he is so well satisfied with the information that he has had through his son's visit to New York and from men who have called upon him that he feels it is unnecessary to give any further thought to the matter. Besides the support of several of the party leaders of National prominence, it is said that three-fourths of the New York Congressmen have joined in an endorsement of him.

Proposed Agricultural Department.

Unless the President should interpose a veto it is quite probable that General Harrison will have eight instead of seven men to select for his Cabinet, as the members of the House Committee of Conference upon the bill creating the new Department of Agriculture and Commerce, are willing to rescind from their position and accept the demands of the Senate. The principal point at issue has been the transfer of the Signal Service from the War Department to the Agricultural Department, which has been insisted upon by the House, but opposed by the Senate. Those in charge of the bill in the House are of the opinion that it is better to surrender this point than to lose the bill entirely, but they will expect in another Congress to amend the law so that not only the Signal Service but the Land Office shall be added to the new department. It is understood, however, that the President is not entirely satisfied with the bill and is likely to veto it.

The Governor of California has appointed M. H. De Young, proprietor of the San Francisco Chronicle, Commissioner to the Paris Exposition of '89.

THE HOUSE DEADLOCK.

Talk of Breaking It by Expelling Congressman Weaver.

Regarding the deadlock in the House over Weaver's persistent efforts to force consideration of the Oklahoma bill, the Democrats believe it would be useless for them to discipline Weaver by means of the caucus, as he refused to obey the edict of the last one. One Democratic member significantly remarked that the House would not brook Weaver's action many days longer, but that, if necessary, a resolution of expulsion would be brought in.

Such an extreme measure, however, is hardly to be expected, especially as Weaver is merely exercising a right which the rules accord to him. Some of the Republican members contend that the Speaker should decline to recognize Weaver in making his filibustering motions. They claim, although such action on the part of the Speaker would be in the nature of a despotic exercise of power, it would be justified by the present exigency, and would be in accordance with precedents set by previous Speakers.

New Hampshire's New Senator.

The statement is made that Representative Gallinger, of New Hampshire, will be appointed Senator on the 4th of next March, by the Governor of that State, to fill the vacancy which will be created by the expiration of the term to which Senator Chandler was chosen.

When the Legislature meets in June, it is believed that Senator Chandler will be re-elected. Dr. Gallinger would thus be given a three months experience as a Senator, with only about four weeks of actual service as the Senate will remain in session during the most of March to act upon President Harrison's nominations. Dr. Gallinger did not stand for re-election to the House, having refused a renomination. He is an extremely vigorous man in committee and on the floor, and is a strong and effective partisan. It will be remembered that he seconded the nomination of General Harrison at Ohiango, and was one of the first members of the House from the East, along with Representative George West, of New York, who announced his preference for the Indiana candidate. This was several months before the Chicago Convention met.

"Cabinet Gossip.

The latest explanation of General Harrison's neglect to announce his Cabinet comes from the Blaine men, and is to the effect that he does not consider himself President-elect, and will not until the Electoral College meets on next Monday. They say that he does not think it would be good manners for him to announce any members of his Cabinet until after the election of the Electoral College has been prepared. But a Senator who has just returned from Indianapolis says that nobody knows anything about the Cabinet, and that General Harrison has not decided whom he will invite, with the exception of one man, and that is John Wanamaker, of Philadelphia. The latter has been asked to accept a position, through Senator Quay, to any department.

Candidates for West Point.

The President now has the appointment of five candidates for admission to the United States Military Academy. It is understood that he has selected four of the five, but their names have not yet been officially announced and will not be until the fifth is determined upon. There are good reasons for believing the President will give the majority of these places to the sons of army officers, and it is pretty certain that the sons of Capt. Butler, of the Ordnance Department, and of Gen. Sartelle, of the Quartermaster's Department, will be among the lucky ones. The son of Representative Townsend, of Illinois, it is believed, stands a good show of appointment.

The prosperity of Nebraska is to a great extent indicated by the growth and improvement made by the cities through the past year. Lincoln reports an expenditure of three and a half million dollars on public and private improvements for the year. Fremont has invested something like a half million for a similar purpose. Beatrice, Nebraska City, Kearney and other towns have likewise made public and private improvements which do them credit.

An Eye for an Eye.

The Truckee Republican says:

The Reno people are again agitating the sawdust question in a violent manner and are denouncing the Truckee millmen very virulently. These are the same folks who want to construct storage reservoirs in the mountains for irrigating purposes, forgetting, apparently, that the millmen could stop such proceedings if they chose to. The Reno people are not diplomatic, they should get the co-operation of the millmen in the construction of reservoirs by letting the sawdust matter drop, at least until after the reservoirs were built. If our down the river neighbors persist in their determination to injure the millmen, they can hardly expect that the latter would give consent to the damming of the streams for irrigation purposes. The millmen hold the key to

Opera House DRY GOODS STORE.

Valuable Information!

ARTICLE I. SECTION 1.—C. W. Booton, of the Opera House Dry Goods Store begs leave to call the attention of the public to bear in mind that he has put in a fine and well selected stock of BOOTS AND SHOES, made by the famous Nolan Bros., of San Francisco. The quality of this firm's make is too well known to need any comment; also my stock of READY MADE CLOTHING is second to none now in this city for quality and reasonable prices—good suits for men, from $6.50 up; boys' suits, from $2.50 up.

SECTION 2.—Any intelligent community, especially such as resides in Reno, is tired and disgusted long ago of reading advertisements quoting prices reduced from so and so to so and so. For instance, you see advertised to-day in the papers a corset reduced from $1 to 55 cents per pair. Now, there must be something wrong to charge the ladies one dollar for a corset for some time, then reduce it to 55 cents per pair. I sell the same corset for 50 cents per pair in all sizes, and never asked any more for it.

ARTICLE I, SECTION 3.—Please note again, You see advertised frequently rhadames reduced from $2 per yard to $1.25 per yard—this is a repetition of Section 2, Article I. You will see there is a profit of 75 cents per yard taken off, which is an enormous profit, and as no one sells goods for cost, then at $1.25 per yard there must be still a profit. Now, I sell good rhadames for $1 per yard, which I suppose some merchants sell for $2 per yard.

ARTICLE I. SECTION 4.—I sell an excellent quality of black silk for $1 per yard. The ladies frequently tell me they paid $2 per yard for the same article down street. I don't doubt it in the least, but the time has arrived when high prices will reign no longer in Reno on dry goods, boots and shoes and clothing. The amount of goods I turn out daily is sufficient guarantee that the people of Reno appreciate a ONE PRICE CASH STORE. All goods marked in plain figures.

ARTICLE II. In the morning papers may also be seen a description of a ladies' cloth 36 inches wide selling for 25 cents per yard. All ladies who are at all posted, know there is no such thing as a lady's cloth 36 inches wide. If perchance there may be such a thing in the category of dry goods out of respect to the ladies I would not advertise nor offer it for sale, as I know it would not give satisfaction. See my all-wool, fine quality of treicot dress goods, in all shades, for 40 cents per yard. Sold everywhere for 75 cents per yard.

ARTICLE III. I sell a fine white merino vest for 35 cents each, all sizes, which is my regular price. I sell hemstitched, colored bordered handkerchiefs for 4 cents each, and make no blow about it like our cotemporary, who sells them for 5 cents each. I sell a nice black jersey for 50 cents, which is the regular price—it is not reduced from $1 as some would have you believe. I sell a pure linen damask towel with fancy designs on center and fancy border. This towel is 40 inches long and I positively say that wherever it is kept in stock on this coast it is retailed for 50 cents. I sell it for 25 cents. If this towel is not as I advertise it will charge nothing for it. Call and see it.

Respectfully,

C. W. BOOTON.

LOS ANGELES.

A Few Words Around the Roulette Table.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 6, 1889.

ED. JOURNAL.—Once more amidst the orange groves of Southern California, soothed by the sea breeze, laden with the fragrance of a thousand orchards, I cannot but look back with fond regret upon the pleasant four months spent in your little town. Los Angeles, the CITY OF THE ANGELS, Well deserves her name of the "Queen of the South," and yet I fancy myself once more in frosty Reno, rising in the moon to see the snow upon the mountains and the ice upon the brook, and I long for the dry and healthy atmosphere in which you dwell.

Politically, Los Angeles is stagnant. As you are well aware, at the last general election the Republicans scored a signal triumph and all the county offices are in their hands. The late city elections however, resulted in a decisive Democratic victory, and the consequence thereof is felt in the numerous changes amongst the city officials. His many friends in Reno will be sorry to hear that L. Loomis, late

CAPTAIN OF THE POLICE, Has suffered from the change of administration. Although he retains a position upon the force he has been reduced to the ranks. There is some consolation in the fact that he has been allowed to retain his star, as this in itself is a high tribute to his honesty and capability. The actions of the forthcoming Nevada Legislature are watched with considerable anxiety and expectation by many now enjoying the hospitality of Southern California, and in like manner the Sacramento session is exciting much interest, owing to the fact that the new city charter adopted by the selected freemen of this city will come up for approval. Should it pass both branches of the Legislature it will result in an entire upheaval of the BALANCE OF POWER. Within our city limits, but, personally, I hope that it will be rejected as it is not merely unconstitutional but factious to a degree.

I met your old friend, Mr. H. Higgins, yesterday and he desires to be kindly remembered to all his old acquaintances. He looks very well, and at present Los Angeles seems to agree immensely with him. I would not advise anyone to make this city the Mecca of his hopes, at least not at present, as trade is at a stand-still, and there is little or no money in circulation.

Yours, etc., ANGLICE.

A JOURNAL reporter was present at a rehearsal of the Parlor Dramatic Co., Thursday evening and was delighted with the performance. It was all that could be expected of amateurs. The characters were so well assumed that he at once considered he was listening to a drama given by professionals. The play, as it is advertised, is a stirring drama with many attractive scenes.

Extra Trains to be Discontinued.

The extra trains between San Francisco and Ogden, which were put on by the Central Pacific last October, will be temporarily discontinued next week. The discontinuance of these trains is said by Passenger Agent Goodman to be due entirely to the popularity of the second-class "tourist sleeper."

Alturas' Railroad.

Hopeful Northern People.

The Alturas New Era says:

Hon. E. V. Spencer, of Susanville, arrived in Alturas last week. He believes that two lines of railroad will be built from Alturas to tide water—one via Redding and the other by way of South Fork, Madeline and the Deer Creek Passes. He also believes that but one line will extend from Alturas to connect with the Oregon Short Line. These impressions Mr. Spencer gained from a conversation he recently held with N. D. Rideout, the Sacramento banker and railroad man. "Rideout also said," continued Spencer, "that the railroad would be built up here very shortly."

Mr. Spencer thinks that Alturas is bound to be a big town, and the railroad center for Northern California. "They can give Susanville the go-by," said the lawyer; "but the geographical position occupied by Alturas compels them to come here. You will have a rich and thriving city before your people realize it, and also the best end of the country."

We sincerely hope the gentleman's prediction will be fulfilled. And, everything considered, we can see no reason why they should not be fulfilled. The town is the center of the largest, richest and best portion of the North; our trade at the present time is enormous, and the advent of a railroad will increase the business to an extent beyond computation at this time. Every inch of land, in the next decade, will be under a high state of cultivation. The more-bucks hereabouts think differently. They say that water cannot be placed on certain lands. Money will do anything; it will place water on the highest land in the country, and that money will be forthcoming when the demands of settlers require it.

The railroad will also bring a bank, a much-needed institution in this northern country. It will also bring a large immigration of desirable people to our county. It will also be the means of adding $1,000,000 of taxable railroad property to the county. It will increase the value of real estate from 25 to 50 per cent. The benefits to be derived from a railroad by our people will be larger than we care to figure at this time.

The cost of building a railroad in this country will be small. The road will pass up through a natural road bed, comparatively level.

We are bound to have a railroad, and it will be here in less than a year. God speed to the iron horses.

A NEVADA SENATOR.

Senator Andrew Nicholls Goes to His Field of Labor

The following is taken from the Los Angeles Tribune, and speaks a good word for Senator Lander's Senator, Hon. Andrew Nicholls:

"Lander county, Nevada, will be represented in the Senate which convenes next Monday by Senator Andrew Nicholls, who for over 25 years resided at Austin, the county seat of Lander county, being one of its earliest and most successful business men. In fact, Mr. Nicholls built the first house in the old town of Clifton, which was afterwards entirely deserted when the people moved a mile farther up Poverty Canyon, to be nearer the famous Reese River mines. His home is now the only one left as a silent reminder of the once bustling town of 10,000 people. The Senator enjoys in a marked degree the confidence of not only the people of his own county, but of the entire State as well. Lander county has repeatedly honored him, having been elected to the Legislature frequently, and also as a member of the Board of Supervisors. Two years ago he was urged for the gubernatorial nomination, but he refused to run against C. C. Stevenson, the present Governor, and turned all his energies to nominate and elect that gentleman. The Republicans of Lander then forced upon him the unanimous nomination for State Senator, to which position he was elected over one of the best Democrats in the county. The Senator has resided in Los Angeles of late, and has made large investments here, calculating to make this city his permanent home. He goes to Carson City to represent Lander county in the coming session, as his term does not expire until after it has passed. He desired to resign, but his constituents would not listen to it. Mrs. Nicholls will spend her time visiting friends and relatives in San Francisco, Reno, Austin and Carson City during the session."

Harvesting Ice.

The Truckee Republican says:

Several of the ice companies have commenced the ice harvest. The Mountain Ice Co. commenced Monday, and the Floriston and Peoples companies to-day. These three companies have from ten to twelve inch ice. It was expected that the other companies would not commence before Friday or Saturday, but to day there are indications of a storm which may cause them to commence sooner. The Tahoe Company claims to have ten inches and on the Pinole Creek and Boca ponds it is nearly as thick. The companies harvesting employ about forty men each. The other companies will employ a hundred or more. Boca is the head-quarters for most of the ice men and the town is crowded. There is no appearance of any scarcity of labor. If storms hold off for a week, a good ice crop will be harvested. It will require about 75,000 tons to supply the market for next year.

Dainty little globules,

Fine, and white and sweet,

Easy to swallow;

In their work, complete,

No disintegrating—

None gripes, or nothing,

What are they? Why, Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets—the perfection of laxatives. Contain not an atom of mineral poison; are especially appreciated by those whose taste revolts from the coarse, violent pills, which tear their way through the system like steam cars, actually doing harm, instead of good. Of drugists.

Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures "female weakness" and kindred ailments.

What Am I to Do?

The symptoms of biliousness are unhappy but too well-known. They differ in different individuals to some extent. A bilious man is seldom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, also, he has an excellent appetite for liquids but none for solids of a morning. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white and furred it is rough at all events.

The digestive system is wholly out of order and diarrhea or constipation may be a symptom or the two may alternate. There are often hemorrhoids or even loss of blood. There may be giddiness and often headache and acidity or flatulence and tenderness in the pit of the stomach. To correct all this if not effect a cure try Green's August Flower; it costs but a trifle and thousands attest its efficacy.
